

HOW TO READ THE BIBLE

A course in Biblical literacy

This course will be a taster course, looking briefly at the first 12 books of the Old Testament - the story from creation to Israel's Exile. We will look at the main events and characters, and the main theological focus of each book. And we will ask, how should we read this book today.

Each evening will include a talk, some discussion, some advance readings, and some follow up questions.

30th September Paul Lutton	Introduction... How to read the Bible
14th October Desi Alexander	How to read... Genesis
11th November James McKeown	How to read... Exodus
2nd December David Livingstone	How to read... Leviticus
13th January Graham McKeown	How to read... Numbers
17th February Kim Walsh	How to read... Deuteronomy
10th March Stephen Williams	How to read... Joshua
7th April Roz Stirling	How to read... Judges & Ruth
12th May Cindy Brown	How to read... 1& 2 Samuel
9th June Stephen McIlwaine	How to read... 1&2 Kings

There will be tea and coffee afterwards. All are welcome

This course will be held in Fitzroy during 2018/2019.

Once a month, on Sunday evenings.

From 19:00 - 20:30

The story of God and his people is recounted in 66 books, by dozens of different authors, over a period of over 1500 years.

We call it 'God's Word', we say it is inspired. But some of it is narrative, some is poetry, some is prayer, some is correspondence. It is far from a list of instructions from God to the Church. Instead it is a story of love, patience, punishment, forgiveness, grace.

So how should we use it, what is its relevance for us in 21st Century Belfast?

Fitzroy
Presbyterian Church
77 University St.
Belfast BT7 1HL

HOW TO READ THE BIBLE

A course in Biblical literacy

This course will be a taster course, looking briefly at the first 12 books of the Old Testament - the story from creation to Israel's Exile. We will look at the main events and characters, and the main theological focus of each book. And we will ask, how should we read this book today.

Each evening will include a talk, some discussion, some advance readings, and some follow up questions

30th September Paul Lutton	Introduction... How to read the Bible
14th October Desi Alexander	How to read... Genesis
11th November James McKeown	How to read... Exodus
2nd December David Livingstone	How to read... Leviticus
13th January Graham McKeown	How to read... Numbers
17th February Kim Walsh	How to read... Deuteronomy
10th March Stephen Williams	How to read... Joshua
7th April Roz Stirling	How to read... Judges & Ruth
12th May Cindy Brown	How to read... 1& 2 Samuel
9th June Stephen McIlwaine	How to read... 1&2 Kings

There will be tea and coffee afterwards. All are welcome

This course will be held in Fitzroy during 2018/2019.

Once a month, on Sunday evenings.

From 19:00 - 20:30

The story of God and his people is recounted in 66 books, by dozens of different authors, over a period of over 1500 years.

We call it 'God's Word', we say it is inspired. But some of it is narrative, some is poetry, some is prayer, some is correspondence. It is far from a list of instructions from God to the Church. Instead it is a story of love, patience, punishment, forgiveness, grace.

So how should we use it, what is its relevance for us in 21st Century Belfast?

Fitzroy
Presbyterian Church
77 University St.
Belfast BT7 1HL